AUGUST 2015

FIRST PRESS

From Our Pastor

This is the season of Pentecost in the church. We began the season remembering the account of that first Pentecost which is told in the second chapter of Acts. We celebrated the Holy Spirit being poured out on the disciples of Jesus, firing them with passion for the Gospel and moving them in new directions to proclaim and live out that Gospel.

What is likely to cause anxiety among staid Presbyterians who cling to order and decency is not just the disorder of one worship service during the year, but the possibility of what it might mean beyond that; what it might mean for us who are living in such a rapidly and radically changing world.

"What does it mean?", those first disciples asked one another on Pentecost. Many of us are asking that same question these days as values and traditions are questioned and left behind, and institutions including the church face decline – at least in this country. What does the Spirit's activity mean for us? What now?

Jeffrey D. Jones, in his book, Facing Decline, Finding Hope, says that we in the Christian Church are facing deep changes or a slow death. We continue to seek new answers to old questions. What we need to do is ask new questions.

When the Spirit comes, we're told, "Your sons and your daughters will prophesy; your young men shall dream dreams." But listen, we are told, even "your old men shall see visions" – which is very good news for some of us.

Perhaps something is dying in order to be reborn by the power of God. God often uses the weak and lowly for great works. At this point, even with empty pews, we look to me something more like the Church of Pentecost. We have people of different races, people from all over the world in our midst, a great diversity of gifts.

What now? Our Declaration of Faith says that God sends us out into the world to stand before the Lord in behalf of all people. It tells us that our cries for help and our songs of praise are never for ourselves alone; that worship, which is central, is no retreat from the world, but part of our mission. We serve humankind by discerning what God is doing in the world and joining God there. We affirm that we risk disagreement and error when we try to say what God is doing here and now, but we find guidance in God's deeds in the past and God's promises for the future as they are witnessed to in Scripture. So, we will have to know the scriptures well.

With this Rally Day, we watch for the Spirit's work among us, stirring us up, doing new things, calling us to trust this One to lead even where we cannot see the way.

Financial Report

Please note that while our non-pledge giving is over budget (a good thing!), our pledge income is now almost $19,000 below budget. Our Session Teams and Staff are keeping our expenses down, but it's possible some of our ministries may not be able to meet all needs. If you are able to "catch-up" on your pledge, it would go a long way to fully realizing our ministry at FPC! Thanks to all have continued to make their offerings this summer!

WITNESS AND OUTREACH NEWS

Baby Love

Another delivery of diapers and wipes was made to the Food Pantry, Homeless Shelter and the Salvation Army at the end of May. At that time the distribution totaled approximately 1200 diapers and 1500 wipes for 2015. We are now enjoying the peak of summertime and Baby Love continues to be supported by the members and friends of FPC. Donations of baby diapers and wipes can be placed in the small cradle in the Narthex. Checks or cash may be placed in a pew envelope with your name and Baby Love and you will receive credit to your offering statement.

Find Help. Find Hope.

Family Support Group

Every Third Monday of the Month
7 - 8:30 pm

If you have a loved one with a mental illness, this group is for you. Be a friend, bring a friend. For questions and information, call Caryn Thompson at 770-648-6432. Come in the door on Clark Street with the sign for the Care and Counseling Center.

Sponsored by NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) for Rockdale and Newton counties.

Treats for the Shelter Folks

Another "Sundaes on Sunday" gathering was enjoyed by the residents of the Homeless Shelter on Sunday May 17th. This time 6 children and 8 adults were in attendance. Ice cream is certainly a big summertime treat for everyone and each child seemed to enjoy the token gift they received.

Nicaragua Mission Trip

Eleven year old Taylor Bouchillon, son of Lisa and Baxter, after hearing about the world's shortage of clean water and the devastating effects of contaminated water, decided that he wanted to do something about it. And so, four months ago he began cutting grass, washing cars, and doing odd jobs for his extended family. Taylor raised $180.00, enough to pay for six water filters. The filters will be delivered to our Nicaraguan brothers and sisters the first week in August. Judy Davis and the entire Nicaraguan team are so grateful for Taylor's contribution and for this young man's compassionate concern for others. The Nicaraguan people who receive these will be much healthier due to Taylor's unselfish gift.

A big thanks to Lisa Bouchillon, Taylor Bouchillon, Grace Harris, Riley Loftin, Judy Hooten, Palmer Wilson, Tory Bouchillon and Raleigh Loftin, who packed twenty baby bags which will be taken to Nicaragua on August first.

The Silver Saints and the Ambassador Choir met together on May 7th. It was a great time. Since then things have occurred to change the original tentative calendar. The Silver Saints have temporarily become the Greatest Generation (again) and enjoyed lunch together at Stalvey's Restaurant on Thursday July 9th. A group of 12 attended including a new couple. This makes our first time together a success. The plan for the future will be as we did in July. An announcement will be in the bulletin and newsletter, the date will be indicated, the time always will be 11:30, the place will be identified and a reminder to call the church office to confirm attendance will be requested.

Fun for the Saints

To Our Friends at FPC:

Mere words will never adequately convey to the Pastor, Staff and Members of First Presbyterian what comfort, what solace, what blessings we have received from your many and varied acts of Christian Love at this sad time of our lives. However, let these two simple words, "Thank You" come to you with all the love in our hearts for you. And may God richly bless you.
Patrick, Janet and the Carmichael family

Dear Friends,

I send my sincere thanks for all your cards and notes during my recent health crisis. Your lovely messages buoyed my spirit during my lengthy rehabilitation. Your kindness is much appreciated.
Sincerely, Jeanne Cannon

From Alice Walker

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the appreciative notes I have received from so many of you!
Your encouragement means more than I can express. It is my joy and privilege to be your Organist and to have served God for twelve years in this wonderful church.
Sincerely,
Alice Walker

SUMMER PICNIC

It was a hot Sunday afternoon when about 65 friends gathered at Clarks Grove for our summer picnic. Much good food, swimming, games, and lively conversation helped all to forget the temperature. Many thanks to all who helped put up the five tents, who hauled food and ice, who chauffeured people in golf carts (Sam Hay and Bob Tabb), and to all for cleaning at the end of the day. Special thanks for Dan Walden for loading tables and chairs into his truck. We did have a good time----just HOT. Perhaps next year we should consider an outdoor event for a cool fall day.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY TRAINING

The 2015-2016 Horizons Bible Study, "Come to the Waters," offers an invitation to be cleansed, renewed, and challenged as we explore Biblical references to water.

"Come to the Waters" promises leaders of Presbyterian Women Circles and church school study groups nine lessons exploring key references to water in our Scriptures.

The rich imagery of water throughout the Bible helps us to understand and articulate our faith. Just as water nourishes our bodies, so the Scriptures on water nourish our souls.

The weekday course at Columbia Theological Seminary Harrington Center will be August 3-5. the instructor will be author of the study, Judy R. Fletcher. Fee is $195.00 per person, or $185.00 per person for two or more from the same group.

The weekend course will be August 14-15. The instructor will be Linda Morningstar, Presbyterian clergywoman and frequently requested Bible Study Leader. Fee will be $100.00 per person, or $90.00 per person with two or more from the same group. For additional information, please visit www.ctsnet.edu. Hopefully, a number of our Presbyterian Women at FPC will be able to attend one of these training courses.
